Auditory Word Lists

Group 1

Instructions:

Say the word from the list as you toss the koosh ball or other object to your child. After they catch the ball they should make the beginning sound of the word you just said (not the letter name but the sound) as they toss the ball back to you. Continue down the list until it is completed.

If your child misses the sound, take a second to practice the sound by giving them a few more words that begin with the correct sound and the sound they mistook for it. Help them to distinguish between the two by over-accentuating the sounds.

Auditory Word Lists

Group 2

Instructions:

Say a word as you toss the koosh ball or other object to your child. They catch the ball and say another word that begins with the same sound.

At first you may want to warn them when you are changing sounds. However, the goal is to get them to hear for themselves when the beginning sound has changed and be able to change along with it.

If your child makes a mistake. take a moment to work on hearing the differences between the two sounds they got confused.
